Dear Mr Domitrz:

I am enthusiastically writing this letter in support of the Can I Kiss You? Program that Mike Domitrz facilitates. Our campus comprises of a strong male population, over 70 percent to be exact, therefore educational programs that address the concept of dating wellness and sexual assault awareness are top priority. This past Fall, Mike Domitrz presented a high energy, fun, and practical presentation that took a closer look at situations that are very real to our college students. Mike's style and approach to a very controversial subject definitely resonated with and challenged the students in attendance. As an activities director, I feel that it is sometimes difficult to find lectures that engage students, relate to students, and educate students. The Can I Kiss You? Program does all that and more. Students truly enjoyed the program and now have a stronger sense of respect and communication in dating relationships.

Having Mike Domitrz speak at our campus was the perfect program to kick off our school year. I strongly recommend Mr. Domitrz and his Can I Kiss You? Program.

Sincerely,

Travis Sieber
